

Trucks Now Rolling Over Alaskan Highway

U. S. troops and supplies are now rolling into Alaska over the Alaska Highway (Alcan), which was finished months ahead of schedule. The 1,600-mile road ends at Fairbanks. Photos show (right), a bulldozer knocking a trail through virgin forest; lower left, a "carry-all" puts the finishing touches to a section of the highway as trucks bring up gravel for surfacing; upper left, scenic view of the Alcan as it winds through the Yukon. Circle: Brig. Gen. William Hoge and Maj. E. J. Stann, executive officer, discuss route at Whitehorse.

Drying Soldiers' Mail Saved From Sea

Recovered from the sea after the plane carrying it had crashed, this mail, destined for soldiers overseas, is shown as it was carefully dried and sorted at the New York army post office before being re-shipped. The army goes to a great deal of trouble to see that the boys get their mail regularly.

Treason Trial

Unsung Heroes of Solomons Battle

U. S. navy pharmacists' mates, attached to the marines as corpsmen, are the unsung heroes of this war. Acting as stretcher bearers, and giving first aid to the sick and wounded, they are frequently under fire. This crew is bringing in a wounded marine through the sweltering heat and rains on Guadalcanal island.

Captured in Battle With British Corvette

In a midnight Atlantic ocean battle the corvette Dianthus rammed and sank a U-boat which had been imperiling United Nations supply lines. After the U-boat was blown to the surface with depth charges the Dianthus rammed it four times. A number of German prisoners were picked up by the Dianthus, which rejoined her convoy in time to rescue survivors from a torpedoed merchant ship. Here are some of the U-boat prisoners disembarking from HMS Dianthus at a British port.

Children's Friend

Sister Elizabeth Kenny, Australian nurse, who was awarded the Parents' magazine's annual medal for outstanding service to children, in recognition of her contribution to the treatment of infantile paralysis. Her method has had wide endorsement.

As Red Army Moved to Stalingrad Front

Red army infantrymen are pictured above, moving towards prepared positions in the outer defenses of Stalingrad. At the same time, far south of the besieged Volga river city, under the blizzard-swept Caucasus mountains, heroic Russian defenders stubbornly resisted the Nazi invaders.

Defend Canal Zone

Army and navy commanders in charge of Panama canal defense are shown on an air inspection. Pilot of plane is Lieut. Gen. Frank Andrews, Caribbean defense commander. The co-pilot is Rear Adm. Clifford Van Hook, commandant of the 15th naval district.

At Haupt Trial

Mrs. Gerda Melind, former fiancée of Herbert Haupt, executed Nazi saboteur, is shown as she entered the federal court building in Chicago to testify in the treason trial of friends and relatives of the former Chicago youth. Defendants were charged with sheltering and aiding him in his plans against U. S. war plants.
